

Mexican Court Sentences Soldier Over Forced Disappearance

Image not found or type unknown

Mexico City, August 19 (teleSUR-RHC)-- A federal court sentenced a sub

The soldier, whose identity remains anonymous, has been convicted and ;

This latest sentence represents a major victory for human rights organizations

Since 2011, organizations have repeatedly and successfully appealed to the Sup

In the interim, Congress finally defined "forced disappearance," or kidnapping

According to a recent U.N. report, the Mexican government has only registered

Since the militarization shift of the anti-drug policy implemented in 2006, fe

The recent high profile cases of the massacre of Tlatlaya, in the state of Mex

In the case of Ayotzinapa, independent experts found on Monday that key eviden

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/66200-mexican-court-sentences-soldier-over-forced-disappearance>

Radio Habana Cuba