

Havana Hosts Belgian-Cuban Business Forum

Havana, August 25 (RHC)-- Cuban and Belgian entrepreneurs will meet on Thursday, August 27th in Havana to explore opportunities to diversify bilateral commercial exchange in sectors such as construction, telecommunications and the pharmaceutical industry.

The business forum will take place at Havana's Hotel Nacional and shortly after the visit to Belgium by Cuban Foreign Minister Bruno Rodriguez, where he thanked that country's contribution to ongoing negotiations between Cuba and the European Union towards new commercial and economic collaboration.

During the forum, Cuban representatives will present the new investment opportunities on the island in key economic sectors, and particularly in the Special Development Zone located in the western Mariel harbor.
