

Argentinian Government Declares Agricultural Emergency in More than 60 Flood-hit Districts

During a press conference this morning, Kicillof, who was accompanied by Cabinet Chief Aníbal Fernández and Buenos Aires province Governor Daniel Scioli, also announced tax extensions for affected farmers.

The government will also launch public works to repair rural roads in flood-hit areas.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/67391-argentinian-government-declares-agricultural-emergency-in-more-than-60-flood-hit-districts>

Radio Habana Cuba