Lebanese Riot Police Remove Protesters Occupying Ministry Building

Beirut, September 3 (RHC)-- In Lebanon, riot police have forcibly removed more than two dozen protesters from the Environment Ministry building in the capital Beirut, after the demonstrators occupied the building to demand the minister's resignation over the heaps of trash piling up in the streets.

The occupation was part of the growing "You Stink!" campaign protesting government ineptitude.

Radio Habana Cuba