

Uruguayan Teachers Suspend 15-Day Strike Without Agreement

Image not found or type unknown

Montevideo, September 4 (teleSUR-RHC)-- Teachers unions suspended the strike. Nevertheless, they warned they could mobilize again in the future with "We made the decision to suspend the strike ... The conflict is maintained in In Montevideo, however, local teacher unions decided to maintain the strike, u The government sent the bill to Congress with the budget for the next five year A week earlier, the center-left government of President Tabare Vazquez issued, On Sunday, Vazquez agreed to cancel the decree, asking teachers to go back to The strikes affected around 350,000 children enlisted in primary public school President Vazquez, from the progressive Broad Front, formally took power on Ma

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/67928-uruguayan-teachers-suspend-15-day-strike-without-agreement>

Radio Habana Cuba