

Colombian ELN and FARC to Possibly Relaunch Coordination Body

Image not found or type unknown

Bogotá, September 12 (teleSUR-RHC)-- The leader of Colombia's second largest National Liberation Army (ELN) head Nicolas Rodriguez Bautista, better

Rodriguez announced that negotiations were currently taking place in a bid to

"This is will strengthen the unity of the rebels and will consist of an import

"Both organizations ran a survey among our supporters and an overwhelming major

Experts on the Colombian peace process commented on Rodriguez's declaration, h

It would be interesting, said political analyst Ernesto Borda, if such thing h

As for Senator Horacio Serpa from the governing Liberal Party, he believed tha

On the other hand, peace negotiation opponents claimed this move could extend

"Negotiating again this topic with the ELN could extend indefinitely the negot

Other political analysts and leaders also pointed to the necessity of the FARC

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/68835-colombian-eln-and-farc-to-possibly-relaunch-coordination-body>

Radio Habana Cuba