

Huge London Rally Held in Solidarity with Refugees

London, September 12 (RHC)-- A massive crowd of demonstrators took to the streets of London to call for action on Europe's deepening refugee crisis. The 'Solidarity with Refugees' rally on Saturday began at Park Lane and proceeded to Downing Street, with speeches in Parliament Square.

The participating organizations included the Refugee Council, Amnesty International, the Syria Solidarity Movement, Stand Up to Racism and the Stop the War Coalition.

The march was held ahead of emergency talks on Europe's refugee crisis on Monday that will be attended by the UK Home Secretary, Theresa May, and her EU counterparts.

Organizers of the Solidarity with Refugees march said that May needed to convey the message that Europe should not continue to allow thousands to die trying to reach the EU and exercise their legal right to claim asylum, according to the Guardian.
