

Experts to Discuss in Cuba Performance in Innovative Fields

Matanzas, September 26 (PL-RHC)-- "Performance, Innovation and Cooperation for Development, is the motto experts will focus on in Matanzas on October 28-30 during the the 7th National Workshop on Science, Technology and Innovation (CITAtenas-2015), organizers reported.

Scientists, technologists, producers and innovators were invited to participate in the event, sponsored by the office of the Ministry of Science, Technology and Environment (CITMA) in Matanzas province.

The statement CITMA delivered to Prensa Latina news agency said subjects to be discussed will be Innovation Systems and Chain of Values, and Innovations in the Sectors of Health, Agricultural Production and Education: Challenges and Opportunities.

Management Capacity for Innovation and Development, Knowledge and Innovation for Local Development, Creative Industries, and Environment, are the rest of the topics to be analyzed, according to the source.

The program includes speeches by important figures on this fields, round table discussions, workshops, panels and sessions for presentations, the ministerial document added.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/70494-experts-to-discuss-in-cuba-performance-in-innovative-fields>

Radio Habana Cuba