

Cuban President Raúl Castro Wraps Up Packed Agenda in New York

United Nations, September 29 (RHC)-- Cuban President Raúl Castro concluded Tuesday afternoon a packed agenda of activities in New York, where he attended the high-level segment of the UN General Assembly and met with several world leaders.

The Cuban president met Tuesday morning with his U.S. counterpart Barack Obama. The two presidents spoke about the recent visit of Pope Francis to both the U.S. and Cuba, and about pending issues on the bilateral agenda, including Washington's blockade of Cuba.
