

Nearly 10,000 Protest Ankara Bombings in Istanbul

Istanbul, October 12 (RHC)-- Thousands of people have gathered in Istanbul in protest against a twin bomb blast, blamed by the main pro-Kurdish party on the Turkish "murderous state."

Around 10,000 people converged on the city's Istiklal Street, some carrying placards reading "The state is a killer" and "We know the murderers," of more than 90 people killed in Ankara, AFP reported on Sunday.
