

British Musician Sting Calls for Justice for Thousands of Missing Persons in Mexico

Mexico City, October 13 (RHC)-- The British musician Sting has called for justice for the thousands of missing persons over the past years in Mexico and showed his solidarity with the families of the victims.

The singer, who offered a concert over the weekend in the Mexican state of Morelos, spent time with members of families of the disappeared. He issued a statement, encouraging the Mexican government to resolve the cases of those missing persons, saying that the apparent indifference shown by authorities has reached epidemic proportions.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/72471-british-musician-sting-calls-for-justice-for-thousands-of-missing-persons-in-mexico>

Radio Habana Cuba