

Cuba Will Promote Its Exports at FIHAV 2015

Havana, October 31 (RHC)-- Cuba's exports, foreign investment and trade will be the main focus of the 33rd edition of the International Trade Fair 'FIHAV 2015', which opens its doors Monday, November 2nd in Havana.

The event, considered Cuba's premier trade event, will see the participation of companies from 70 countries, representing an increase from last year's fair. Spain, Venezuela and China will bring the largest delegations.

The 8th Meeting of the Cuba-Russia Business Committee will hold sessions in the framework of FIHAV 2015. Other parallel events also include a conference on the regional monetary system (SUCRE), as well as bilateral meetings with business executives from Venezuela, Mexico, Brazil, South Africa and Vietnam.
