

Turkish Ruling Party Regains Parliamentary Majority

Ankara, November 2 (RHC)-- In Turkey, the party of president Recep Tayyip Erdogan has regained its parliamentary majority in national elections.

On Sunday, Turkish voters elected Erdogan's Justice and Development Party—the AKP—to 330 of the Parliament's 550 seats. It's a major comeback for the AKP after losing its majority in the last campaign five months ago.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/74583-turkish-ruling-party-regains-parliamentary-majority>

Radio Habana Cuba