

Cuba Reiterates Commitment to Fight Corruption

Saint Petersburg, November 3 (RHC)-- The Vice President of the Cuban Council of States Gladys Bejerano reaffirmed in Saint Petersburg Cuba's commitment to fight corruption.

Addressing the 6th UN Conference in the Russian city, Bejerano, who is also Cuba's Comptroller General, said fighting corruption is key in the context of the ongoing process to update our country's economic model towards achieving a more prosperous, sustainable socialism.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/74710-cuba-reiterates-commitment-to-fight-corruption>

Radio Habana Cuba