

Germany Announces Plan for Special Centers to Fast-Track Deportations

Berlin, November 7 (RHC)-- German Chancellor Angela Merkel has announced a new plan for people seeking asylum. It involves creating special centers that will fast-track deportation proceedings for people who do not qualify for refugee status.

Approximately 800,000 people have arrived in Germany this year, most fleeing violence in Syria, Afghanistan, Iraq, Somalia, Eritrea and other countries.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/75157-germany-announces-plan-for-special-centers-to-fast-track-deportations>

Radio Habana Cuba