

Scores of Raids in France and Belgium in Search for Paris Suspect

Paris, November 16 (RHC)-- French authorities said they believed the Paris attacks were carried out by eight assailants working in three teams. Seven of the men died in the attacks and a massive manhunt is underway for the eighth—Salah Abdeslam, a Belgian-born French national. Two of his brothers were said to have died in the attack. Several of the attackers were French nationals.

Overnight, French authorities carried out 168 raids, making 23 arrests, as part of the investigation. Police in the Belgian city of Molenbeek also carried out a series of raids this morning.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/76026-scores-of-raids-in-france-and-belgium-in-search-for-paris-suspect>

Radio Habana Cuba