

Two Men Barred from U.S. Flight for Speaking Arabic

Chicago, November 23 (RHC)-- Islamophobic incidents have continued in the United States following the attacks in Paris.

Over the weekend, two men were temporarily barred from boarding a Southwest flight from Chicago to Philadelphia after a passenger heard them speaking Arabic.

In the U.S. state of Texas, where it is legal to carry firearms in public, armed protesters rallied outside the Islamic Center of Irving, decrying the "Islamization of America."
