

French Police Raids Continue as Officials Find Suicide Belt

Paris, November 24 (RHC)-- In France, police are continuing a wide-ranging crackdown, carrying out more than 1,000 searches and detaining more than 100 people.

The New York Times reports police broke down the door of a restaurant selling halal burgers and Tex-Mex food in the Paris suburbs over the weekend – but found nothing.

On Monday, police said they found a suicide belt in the Paris suburb of Montrouge which may have been discarded by the fugitive suspect Salah Abdeslam.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/76749-french-police-raids-continue-as-officials-find-suicide-belt>

Radio Habana Cuba