

School Programs Work Hard in Venezuela

---

Image not found or type unknown

Caracas, November 27 (teleSUR-RHC)-- It is the first period after break

On their Canaimas, given to all children in the Venezuelan public schoo

Since 2009, the government has handed out more than 2 million of the sturdy-lo

"They took the initiative to bring this technology to our school," principal o

Inclusive, high-quality and forward-thinking education has always been high on

The massive push resulting in the elimination of illiteracy, the 77 million fr

This week, President Nicolas Maduro announced the relaunch of the Robinson, Ri

Technology has been one of the bases to make the system more inclusive.

Myriam Quintana, information technology teacher at the Unidad Educativa Nacion

Another important program under the Bolivarian schools system is the PAE schem

"Those children come without food, and here we give it to them. A meal balance

Lunchtime at the public school and the kitchen vibrates with the clash of pots

One of the caterers explains that they too have benefited from the food progra

"They pay us fairly because now we receive the minimum wage. We get food vouch

Back across town at Base Aerea Generalisimo Francisco de Miranda school, where

Zapata, like many in the Venezuelan schools system, recognizes that "there are

Radio Habana Cuba