

Solidarity with Cuba Movement in Argentina Will Step up Actions in Support of Our Country

Rosario, November 30 (RHC)-- The Argentinean Movement of Solidarity with Cuba –known as MasCuba– announced that it will step up actions in support of the Cuban people and their Revolution, particularly Cuba's cause against the economic, commercial and financial blockade imposed and maintained by consecutive U.S. administrations against our country for over half a century.

During a meeting in Rosario, in the Argentinean province of Santa Fe, activists agreed to join a solidarity campaign launched by a group of Argentinean journalists on the social networks and the Internet.

MasCuba said in a statement that it has officially proposed that the Faculty of International Relations and Social Communication of the National University of Rosario award Cuban Revolution Leader Fidel Castro with an honorary degree in 2016.
