

French Hotel Chain to Open New Tourist Facility in Cuba

Havana, December 9 (RHC)-- The French Accor Hotels chain is celebrating its 20th year of operations in Cuba with the opening of a new hotel on December 17th on the keys off the coast of central coast of the island.

Accor Hotels representative Eric Peyre said that the opening of the Pullman Cayo Coco hotel in the central province of Ciego de Avila marks the start of Pullman operations here, after maintaining 81 hotels in another 20 countries.

Accor Hotels is currently operating one hotel in Havana and another one in the Varadero tourist center. The new facility offers 518 hotel rooms in bungalows along the virgin shores of a Cuban key.
