

Iranian Vice President Calls for United Front Against Terrorism

Turkmenistan, December 14 (RHC)-- Iran's first vice president has called for more cooperation with Turkey against terrorism and extremism.

Es'haq Jahangiri said respecting other countries' national sovereignty and territorial integrity is key to regional peace and stability.

The Iranian first vice president made the comments during a meeting with Turkish President Recep Tayyip Erdogan in Turkmenistan.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/78764-iranian-vice-president-calls-for-united-front-against-terrorism>

Radio Habana Cuba