

Chilean Students March as Education Reform Passed

Image not found or type unknown

Santiago de Chile, December 24 (teleSUR-RHC)-- Chilean students and pro

Then on Wednesday, the Chilean parliament passed the reform, which is o

The march was called by the Confederation of University Students of Chile (Con

President Michelle Bachelet had promised to grant "free education for all" aft

Nevertheless, students have repeatedly mobilized against the reform throughout

Controversy around the bill escalated last week with the governing coalition d

"State universities are all included in the free-education bill, none will be

The government explained then that the three public universities fell short of

About 185,000 students should benefit from the measure next year, said Delpian

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/79743-chilean-students-march-as-education-reform-passed>

Radio Habana Cuba