Chilean Students March as Education Reform Passed

mage not found or type unknown Santiago

Santiago de Chile, December 24 (teleSUR-RHC)-- Chilean students and pro

Then on Wednesday, the Chilean parliament passed the reform, which is the march was called by the Confederation of University Students of Chile (Confederation Michelle Bachelet had promised to grant "free education for all" afto Nevertheless, students have repeatedly mobilized against the reform throughout Controversy around the bill escalated last week with the governing coalition of "State universities are all included in the free-education bill, none will be The government explained then that the three public universities fell short of About 185,000 students should benefit from the measure next year, said Delpian

https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/79743-chilean-students-march-as-education-reform-passed

Radio Habana Cuba