

Representatives of Uruguayan Trade Unions Will Attend Havana's International Book Fair

Havana, January 6 (RHC)-- Uruguay's Trade Union PIT-CNT has announced its participation with a large delegation in the upcoming 25th edition of Cuba's International Book Fair, aimed at presenting literary proposals linked to the union organization.

Union leader Ignacio Martínez said that during the book fair the Uruguayan delegation will launch dozens of new titles, which will be later donated to Cuban schools and other cultural institutions.
