

Israeli Soldiers Shoot and Kill Four Palestinians

Ramallah, January 8 (RHC)-- In the Israeli-occupied West Bank, soldiers have shot and killed four Palestinians, whom Tel Aviv had accused of launching two separate stabbing attacks.

On Thursday night, Israeli troopers opened fired on a young Palestinian woman after she allegedly tried to stab soldiers at a checkpoint in the West Bank village of Beit Einun, located five kilometers northeast of Hebron, Arabic-language Safa news agency reported.

The report came only hours after Zionist forces fatally shot three Palestinian youths over an "attempted stabbing attack" on a group of Israeli soldiers at the Gush Etzion Junction in southern West Bank.
