

Eastern Cuba Registers 4.4 Tremor with No Human or Property Damage

---

Santiago de Cuba, January 26 (RHC)-- The Cuban National Seismologic Network reported a 4.4 quake at 5:59 a.m. Tuesday which was felt in the eastern cities of Santiago de Cuba, Granma and Guantánamo.

According to the information, the tremor was located at 19.67 North, 76.14 West, 40 kilometers South-east of Santiago de Cuba City and at a depth of 5.0 kilometers.

Citizens in all municipalities of the three eastern provinces felt the tremor, although no human or property damage was reported.

Radio Habana Cuba