

German Business People Reaffirm Interest in Investing in Cuba

Sancti Spiritus, January 29 (RHC)-- German ambassador to Havana Thomas Kart Neisinger has said business people from his country are interested in investing in Cuba.

The diplomat met with government officials in the Central province of Sancti Spiritus.

Neisinger told Ain News Agency that since last year new foundations were laid in bilateral relations between his country and the Caribbean nation, with the official visit to Cuba of Frank-Walter Steinmaier, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Germany.
