

Hillary Clinton Wins 0.2% Victory in Iowa; Bernie Sanders Sweeps Young Voters

Des Moines, February 3 (RHC)-- The final results from the Iowa Democratic caucus show Hillary Clinton beating Vermont Senator Bernie Sanders by just 0.2 percent, with 49.8 percent compared to 49.6 percent for Sanders.

But Sanders reportedly swept the vote among young Democratic voters, with 84 percent of people between ages 17 and 29 choosing Sanders.

The candidates are now looking ahead to next Tuesday's primary in New Hampshire, where Sanders holds a double-digit lead in statewide polls.
