

Canada Lifts Sanctions and Plans to Restore Relations with Iran

Ottawa, February 6 (RHC)-- Canada has announced that it will lift sanctions on Iran. The government of Prime Minister Justin Trudeau said in a statement that it will lift all economic and trade sanctions on Iran. The statement, issued by Foreign Affairs Minister Chrystia Freeland, said that Canada will lift all applications for export permits for Iran. Nevertheless, Canada has emphasized that it will continue to oppose Iran's nuclear program. Foreign Minister Dion has been quoted as saying that Canada will continue to oppose Iran's nuclear program. He had emphasized that Ottawa would continue to oppose Iran's nuclear program.
