

Three Killed In Raid on Health Clinic in Afghanistan

Kabul, February 19 (RHC)-- A Swedish aid group says Afghan forces have killed two patients and a caretaker during an attack on one of its clinics in the central part of the war-torn country.

The Swedish Committee for Afghanistan (SCA) said on Thursday that the raid took place on its health facility in the Tangi Saidan area of Wardak Province on Wednesday night, accusing members of the Afghan National Army (ANA) of being behind the assault.

The charity denounced the deadly attack as a violation of international humanitarian law.
