

Colombian Political Parties Arrange Coalition in Support of Peace Negotiations

La Paz, Feb 24 (RHC) In Colombia, a political coalition of the majority of parties, has signed a pact to bring peace to the country.

The block, officially established Tuesday in Casa de Nariño, was set up to work for the termination of the long-lasting internal conflict in the South American country.

President Juan Manuel Santos described this as positive, in spite of the differences, that the majority of the parties and movements with a seat in Congress have voiced in their aspiration for peace.
