

Indigenous Peoples Voice Support to the Process of Changes the Government Commands in Bolivia

La Paz, Mar 18 (RHC) The Union of Confederations of Indigenous Intercultural Communities of Bolivia has voiced its support to the process of changes instigated by the government of President Evo Morales commands in Bolivia.

After meeting with President Evo Morales, Confederation Leader Leonardo Loza announced a second meeting with the head of state within three weeks to consult and prioritize mutually benefiting productive projects

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/87737-indigenous-peoples-voice-support-to-the-process-of-changes-the-government-commands-in-bolivia>

Radio Habana Cuba