

Ex President Says Impeachment Without Legal Foundations is Unconstitutional

Brasilia, Mar 29 (RHC) Brazilian ex President Luiz Inacio Lula da Silva noted that to approve impeachment of President Dilma Rousseff, without evidence of a crime, is a coup against institutionality.

At a meeting with the foreign press, Lula da Silva stressed that it is very important Not to fool with democracy and blamed the opposition, and some national media, of generating hatred in the recent antigovernment protests.

Lula, that was appointed Government Chief of Staff, has been unable to assume office because of the judicial plots of the opposition, admitted that if he could not assume this post, he would like to be Dilma Rousseff's economic advisor.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/88763-ex-president-says-impeachment-without-legal-foundations-is-unconstitutional>

Radio Habana Cuba