

Cuba and Norway to Strengthen Cultural Cooperation

Camaguey, April 8 (RHC)-- Norwegian Ambassador to Cuba John Peter Opdahl said in Camaguey province that the potential exists for strengthened cultural cooperation between his country and Cuba towards full social development.

Peter explained that his country's diplomatic mission has been a strong sponsor and promoter of cultural exchanges between the European country and the Caribbean state.

The Norwegian diplomat said while existing cooperation programs concentrate mainly in the capital, Havana, they are now intent on reaching out to Cubans in the central and eastern regions.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/89925-cuba-and-norway-to-strengthen-cultural-cooperation>

Radio Habana Cuba