

Venezuelan President Nicolas Maduro Condemns Anti-Housing Initiative

Caracas, April 15 (RHC)-- Venezuelan President Nicolas Maduro has condemned draft legislation being proposed by right-wing deputies of the National Assembly, which intends to take away the housing from people, built over the past 17 years of the Bolivarian Revolution.

At a rally in front of Miraflores Palace in Caracas, Maduro told a huge crowd that the legislation will put 1,586,000 houses in the hands of private bankers and housing developers.
