

Army of Nigeria Frees Hostages in Power of Boko Haram Terrorists

Abuja, Apr 18 (RHC-PL) The Nigerian Army has set free 455 hostages the terrorist organizations Boko Haram kidnapped a few weeks ago in Wulge and Walamari villages, in the country's Northeastern region.

A military source reported the destruction of 12 camps and the elimination of some 50 kidnappers during the operation. Another seven members of the fundamentalist organization were killed over the weekend during clashes with the Nigerian Army in Pulka, a village East of the capital, and bastion of Boko Haram, for its incursions in neighboring Cameroon and Niger.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/90915-army-of-nigeria-frees-hostages-in-power-of-boko-haram-terrorists>

Radio Habana Cuba