

Radio Havana Cuba Calls on Listeners to Participate in New Contest

Havana, April 22 (RHC)-- Cuba's international radio station Radio Havana Cuba is calling on its listeners all over the world to participate in a new contest --the Orlando Castellanos Special Award 2016. As is traditional, the winner will be announced in Havana during the International Broadcasting Convention.

This year's award consists of a painting with the image of Cuban singer/song-writer Silvio Rodríguez by the Painter from Ibero America, the late Ecuadorian painter Oswaldo Guayasamín, on occasion of Silvio's 40th birthday.

Programs putting forward for this award must be related to the life and work of Silvio Rodríguez, who is considered one of the best exponents of Cuba's nueva trova music movement.

The radio programs may be developed in any journalistic gen-re and should not exceed 15 minutes. They should be sent in digital form to Radio Havana Cuba before May 1st, 2017. This year's contest is also dedicated to the 55th anniversary of Radio Havana Cuba – Cuba's only shortwave radio station.

The contest is open to broadcasters of Cuba or any other country in Latin America and the Caribbean in any of the eight languages that Radio Havana Cuba broadcasts: Spanish, English, French, Portuguese,

Arabic, Quechua, Creole and Esperanto.
