

British Foreign Secretary Arrives in Cuba for Official Visit

Havana, April 28 (RHC)-- Philip Anthony Hammond, Secretary of State for Foreign and Commonwealth Affairs of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, arrives in Cuba Thursday for an official visit.

During his stay, Philip Hammond will fulfill a packed agenda that includes talks with Cuban officials, including his counterpart, Foreign Minister Bruno Rodríguez.

The British foreign secretary is expected to sign a memorandum of understanding covering engineering, higher education and culture. He is also expected to cancel debt accumulated by Cuba, this after last year's agreement between the Caribbean state and the 'Paris club' of the world's richest nations.

The British foreign secretary's visit to Cuba is as part of a tour of Latin America, which already took him to Colombia, where he expressed the UK's support for the country's peace process. From Cuba, the British foreign secretary is scheduled to visit Mexico.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/91922-british-foreign-secretary-arrives-in-cuba-for-official-visit>

Radio Habana Cuba