

President Nicolas Maduro Repudiates Actions of Venezuela's Right-Wing

Caracas, April 29 (RHC)-- Venezuelan President Nicolas Maduro has called on his people to repudiate any act of aggression against violent maneuvers of the opposition, which insists on overthrowing the constitutional government of that country.

In the inauguration of the Local Committee of Supply and Production, the Venezuelan president reported that a bus from the Metrobus line of Santa Rita, Zulia state, was burned, and counterrevolutionaries also tried to set fire to a Metro bus in Maracaibo.
