

Lebanese Economy Minister Announces Visit to Cuba

Beirut, May 7 (RHC-Prensa Latina)-- Lebanese Economy and Trade Minister, Alain Hakim, has accepted an invitation to visit Cuba in June -- leading a delegation of business people who would like to initiate investment projects in different areas.

Hakim received the general director of investment at the Cuban Ministry for Foreign Trade and Foreign Investment (MINCEX), Deborah Rivas, in Beirut. She gave him a letter of invitation sent by the Minister of MINCEX, Rodrigo Malmierca.

During the meeting with Hakim, attended by the Cuban ambassador to Lebanon, Rene Ceballo, the official discussed opportunities her country can provide to the Lebanese business sector on the new stage of foreign investment opportunities and renewed diplomatic relations with the United States.
