

Mexican Court Allows Extradition of Drug Lord Chapo Guzmán to U.S.

Mexico City, May 11 (RHC)-- A Mexican judge has ruled drug lord Joaquín "El Chapo" Guzmán can be extradited to the United States to face trial. Guzmán has been moved to a prison on the U.S.-Mexico border.

El Chapo previously escaped from jail in Mexico twice. His attorneys had fought his extradition in part by citing discrimination against Mexicans, including the words of now-presumptive Republican presidential nominee Donald Trump.
