

Brazilian Social Movements to Protest Against Acting President

Brasilia, May 13 (RHC)-- Brazilian social movements remain in "permanent mobilization" against any coup regime, according to reports from Brasilia, the capital. A coalition of social movements known as the "People's Front Without Fear" called for taking the streets in protest against interim president Michel Temer.

The Popular Youth Uprising, and other groups have also organized protests around the country. Named "Cunha in Prison and Temer Out," demonstrations have been confirmed to be taking place in front of Brazilian Democratic Movement Party offices in 16 states in Brazil: Amazonas, Bahia, Ceara, Minas Gerais, Paraiba, Para, Pernambuco, Parana, Piaui, Rio de Janeiro, Rondonia, Rio Grande do Sul, Rio Grande do Norte, Sao Paulo, Paraiba and the Federal District.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/internacionales/93421-brazilian-social-movements-to-protest-against-acting-president>

Radio Habana Cuba