

Prime Minister of Singapore Receives Cuban Vice President

Havana, May 27 (RHC)-- Marino Murillo, Vice President of the Minister Council of Cuba, met with Prime Minister of Singapore, Lee Hsien Loong, reported Cuba's Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

During the meeting held in Singapore, upon analyzing the state of the bilateral relations the parties both parties expressed their satisfaction as well as their desire and willingness to continue strengthening the bonds between the two nations.

Murillo will remain until next Sunday and he will continue to hold conversations with local authorities.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/94900-prime-minister-of-singapore-receives-cuban-vice-president>

Radio Habana Cuba