

Puerto Rican Solidarity with Cuba Brigade Arrives in Havana

Havana, July 12 (RHC)--The 2016 contingent of the Puerto Rican Juan Rius Rivera Solidarity with Cuba Brigade arrived in Havana on Monday. Over a hundred activists make up the group this year. This is the brigade's 25th visit to Cuba.

The Puerto Rican solidarity activists are scheduled to visit the provinces of Santa Clara, Granma, Holguin and the city of Trinidad, in Sancti Spirits. Their agenda in Cuba also includes actions in celebration of the 90th birthday of the historic leader of the Cuban Revolution, Fidel Castro.

<https://www.radiohc.cu/en/noticias/nacionales/99847-puerto-rican-solidarity-with-cuba-brigade-arrives-in-havana>

Radio Habana Cuba