

Fox News CEO Roger Ailes to Resign Amid Sexual Harassment Claims

New York, July 21 (RHC)-- Lawyers for Fox chair Roger Ailes have confirmed that their client is in negotiations to step down from Fox amid more than a half-dozen accusations of sexual harassment.

Former Fox anchor Gretchen Carlson has sued Ailes. Now, Fox anchor Megyn Kelly has also accused him of harassment.

Many are celebrating Ailes's anticipated departure, though as Feministing founder Jessica Valenti notes: "Removing one lascivious man can't turn around the mess of misogyny that is Fox News." Gretchen Carlson's suit also alleges Fox News has an overall misogynistic culture.
