

Latin American and Caribbean Friends Pay Tribute to Ernesto 'Che' Guevara

Santa Clara, August 5 (RHC)-- The visiting Latin American and Caribbean Solidarity with Cuba Brigade paid tribute on Thursday to Argentinean-Cuban legendary guerrilla commander Ernesto 'Che' Guevara, at the memorial complex bearing his name in Central Villa Clara province.

The 175 brigadistas from 16 nations toured the memorial site, where Che's remains are kept, along with those of his comrades-in-arm fell during the guerrilla war in Bolivia.

The solidarity activists also visited the Tren Blindado (Armored Train Monument), marking one of the most important actions of the 1958 Battle of Santa Clara.
