

Ivanka Trump Says: "If He Wasn't My Father, I Would Spray Him With Mace"

New York, November 25 (RHC)-- U.S. President-elect Donald Trump has been known to say disgusting things about women, even bragging about his sexual conquests and abuse of women. And on this, the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women, an interesting story has been unveiled about Trump and his daughter, Ivanka.

During the presidential campaign, Donald Trump actually said that Ivanka -- in his opinion -- has such a great body and is so beautiful that if she weren't his daughter, he'd be dating her. Trump's statement drew thousands of comments on the social media, referring to his disgusting remarks.

Now, a newly uncovered quote from a 2006 Chicago Tribune piece revealed Donald Trump's eldest daughter also has strong opinions, but not in favor of her dad's machismo. Writer Sarah Kendzior found and tweeted a screenshot of the piece, in which Ivanka says: "If he wasn't my father, I would spray him with Mace." The newspaper article goes on to say Ivanka's statement was in response to "her father complimenting her on figure."
