

Catalonia, Cuba Sign Agreement to Boost Trade Relations

CUBA

ESPAÑA

Barcelona, November 25 (RHC/cna)-- Catalonia's Minister for Business and Knowledge, Jordi Baiget, and the director of the Cuban Center for Foreign Trade Promotion, Roberto Verrier, signed in Havana on Thursday an agreement aimed at strengthening trade relations.

The accord, in the form of a memorandum of understanding, says Cuba will provide Catalonia with information on investment opportunities and will further Catalan investment on the island.

Minister Baiget described the agreement as "important" noting that it creates "direct capacity for dialogue" with Cuban foreign investment authorities. Baiget traveled to Cuba accompanied by Catalonia's Minister for Planning and Sustainability, Josep Rull, and representatives from 50 Catalan companies.

The Catalan trade mission to Cuba was organized by the Port of Barcelona and by Acció, Catalonia's public competitiveness and international outreach agency. Data provided by Acció say 1,032 Catalan companies currently export products to Cuba, accounting for 30 percent of Spain's total sales to Cuba.

Radio Habana Cuba