

Cuba, Democratic People's Republic of Korea Sign Trade Protocol

Pyongyang, February 14 (RHC)-- Democratic People's republic of Korea and Cuba signed Monday a protocol on trade exchange and scientific and technical cooperation through 2017.

The document was signed in Pyongyang by North Korean Minister of Foreign Economy Kim Yong Jae, and Cuba's ambassador to the Asian country Jesús Aise Sotolongo.

During the exchange, both sides expressed a common willingness to further advance political, economic and trade relations.
